CD-ROM – First Families of the Swan River Colony

A brief biographical description of persons arriving into or born in the Swan River Colony up to 31st December 1838 (includes all of Western Australia).

The Swan River Pioneers 1829-1838 Special Interest Group, as part of Western Australia's 175th Anniversary, have produced this CD-ROM. Some of this information has been submitted by members of the group and other gained by research. This index contains information on Births, Deaths, Marriages and where known ship arrivals. Each of the 1544 entries include other names where known such as spouse, children and a brief biography on each person. While this information is listed under family name the index is searchable by subject. Some information on arrivals into Albany in 1826 is also listed.
