Research Interests

Do not complete if you have circled NO in the privacy box on the front page. You may list the surnames you are researching and these will be published in the Society's journal, "Western Ancestor" and in the Members Interests on the WAGS website. Only one name and one place per line. Variations in spelling of surname should be listed on separate lines. Please use Chapman Codes or write the word in full. Only eight entries per person will be published in the journal. You may publish additional entries on the website by following the directions for submission outlined in the Members Interests section on the website. Please print clearly.
